Our Mission:
to promote
the development of creative dance
founded on the free approach to the art of body movement
pioneered by Barbara Mettler.

The natural unfolding of organic form is the foundation of our practice.

We come together in free and playful dance.

Barbara Mettler
(1907 - 2002)

Barbara Mettler's 60 plus year career explored the roots of movement expression to make dance available to everyone. She used improvisation to awaken creativity and to engage the whole person while emphasizing both freedom and rigorous artistic discipline in developing the craftsmanship necessary to create meaningful forms based on movement feeling.

*"Let your muscles and your movement feeling tell you what to do."
- Barbara Mettler*
